CONDITIONS: HORSE RIDING IS A HIGH RISK TOURISM VENTURE

- The rider recognises that horses are living animals and that each horse has a different temperament. The rider acknowledges that there is an element of risk in riding horses. Each horse may act unpredictable if frightened, hurt or in any way mistreated. Knowing the inherent risks, the rider accepts the Establishment, its owners, agents and employees and owner of the land that is ridden on do not accept any liability for any accident, damage or injury to the rider, spectator or any other person or property whatsoever and indemnifies Establishment against any claim that may be made by the rider and or guardians of minor children.
- The area and trails ridden through and on may contain green ants, paper wasps and snakes and other dangerous and poisonous wildlife and plants and the rider accepts the Establishment does not accept any liability whatsoever should the rider encounter and be injured or killed by such wildlife or plants.
- The Establishment relies on the details provided as to the riding experience and age in selecting horses but does not accept any liability for the behavior, nature and habits or disposition of the horse selected.
- The rider alone accepts full responsibility for the control of the horse provided and agrees not to permit fast or uncontrolled riding or galloping and will only ride in a safe and controlled manner. Jumping, taking the lead and cantering is not allowed unless verbally agreed by the Trail Boss.
- All accidents or injury to persons or damage to property or loss of equipment must be reported to the Establishment and/or Trail Boss before leaving the Establishment. If this is not possible due to injury then such report must be made in writing within 14 days of the date of the injury, damage or loss.
- The Establishment takes all care and ensures the equipment used is maintained in safe condition.
- If any rider in the opinion of the Establishment engages in misconduct, discourteous or hazardous riding then the ride may be canceled by the Establishment and or the Trail Boss and the Establishment may not refund any monies charged for the ride.

I have read, understood and accept the terms and conditions stated on this form and acknowledge that this agreement shall be live and binding during the entire period of the participation in the riding activity.
